Compiled by Stace Sorrells, SBDCNet Researcher Click here to suggest a resource link to be added to this page

General

- National Council of the Housing Industry Charts and statistics on the housing industry. Contains some state and local information.
- Old House Journal Profiles several hundred companies involved in restoration: Name, address, phone, fax, brief product information and where they sell their products or services.
- Manufactured Housing Institute Great for statistics.

Construction/ General Contracting

- American Housing Survey (US Census) information about housing characteristics for selected metropolitan areas
- Associated General Contractors of America trade organization for construction industry
- Construction.com industry trends, links and directory of firms
- Construction Owners Association of America association provides internet links and support
- Construction Specifications Institute construction specs and related articles.
- Construction Weblinks find information for a variety of construction issues.
- Dirt Pile construction equipment directory

- Get-a-Quote construction estimating program
- National Association of Home Builders statistics on home building as well as information on future trends
- Resources for Housing Statistics (National Association of Realtors) listing of various links for housing statistics

Photo by Stephen Leonardi on Unsplash