

Knowing where to find Corporate information helps small businesses with incorporation, reporting requirements, researching your competition, learning about potential strategic partners and big customers are just a few examples. So, whether you're just starting out or have operated a business for many years, these links can help direct you to important information. Also remember to check out the great free or low-cost training opportunities, plus free professional business counseling, from your local Small Business Development Center!

General Corporate Information:

- Hoover's Online Search for company and industry information.
- Corporate Information - Company and Industry Information
- CorpTech - look here for information on high tech companies.

Manufacturers/ Suppliers Information

- Thomas Register - national database of manufacturers. Search by name or product/service.

Phone and Addresses:

- GTE Superpages - search for companies by categories, business name, city or state.
- InfoSpace - search for a company by name or type, city or state. Also available is a reverse lookup - find a name using just a phone or fax number.
- Switchboard - Search nationwide yellow pages by category, business name, city, state, or distance

Financial:

- FreeEdgar Online - Search SEC filings for publicly held companies.

Articles

- Find Articles - search for articles.
- BizJournals - search for business journals from major markets nationwide.

Tutorials

- How to Find U.S. Company Information
- How to Learn about an Industry or Specific Company

Photo by Emil Widlund on Unsplash